City Breviews

Mr. John Biddle, a clerk in the office of the chief clerk of the State Department, has been to Nashville. He will represent the State Department at the exposition.

Rev. A. G. Rogers, D. D., will lecture at the Congregational Church tonight (Monday) on "How We Got Our Bible," under the auspices of the American Society of Religious Education.

Estimate Temple, No. 1, R. S., will give an entertainment at 10 o'clock F. Hall, Seventh street northwest, tonight. All Knights of Pythias, especially uniformed members, are invited to attend.

Sylvester Pyle, colored, who has a reputation among the police as an old-time policy runner, was arrested Saturday as he was crossing Long Bridge. Thirty policy plays were found in Pyle's pocket. He is an old offender in this particular line of business.

The dead body of an infant was found Saturday evening in a vacant lot at the corner of Third street and Florida avenue northwest. It was taken to No. 8 station-house and the coroner notified. This is the fourth dead infant that has been found in that precinct during the past two weeks.

The neighbors of Michael McCauley, the grocer at the corner of Rhode Island avenue and Fifth street northwest, who was convicted of the illegal sale of dismargarine, have prepared a petition to the President for the pardon of McCauley, and are hopeful of its favorable consideration. Mr. M. T. Anderson, ex-commander of the G. A. R. Department of the Potomac, has been asked to present it.

FARMER PERPETRATED DEAD.

Was a Familiar Figure Around the Center Market.

William C. Pierpont, a farmer, whose home was at Fulton, Howard county, Md., was taken suddenly ill on Louisiana avenue, near the Center Market, about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon and died while being conveyed to the Emergency Hospital. Death was due to hemorrhage.

A Greenhouse Parcel Found.

A man's arm, carefully wrapped in a piece of newspaper was found by a policeman about 11 o'clock Saturday night in front of the dairy luncheon at No. 617 Twelfth street northwest. Two figures and the head had been cut off, and the arm had evidently been amputated from the body just above the elbow. It is supposed that it was placed there, or perhaps accidentally dropped by some medical student, and very likely came from a dissecting room. The arm was from the body of a colored man.

Two Easter Day Larcenies Reported.

Two larcenies were reported at police headquarters yesterday. Roy A. Snyder, a waiter from Baltimore, lost his bicycle in front of the new Grosvenor Art Gallery, and when he came from the building some one had ridden it away.

Charles Kraft, of No. 320 Twelfth street northwest, reported yesterday that some one had entered his room last Wednesday night and stole $71 in money.

CHAPTER OF EASTER ACCIDENTS.

Several Bicyclists Meet With More or Less Disaster.

Several Easter wheedmen met with painful mishaps while riding yesterday afternoon, but none were of a very serious nature. Capt. C. J. Reed, a man sixty years old, and a clerk in one of the departments, fell from his wheel and sustained a contusion of the hip and several abrasions of the face. Dr. Lawrence and Dr. Turner treated him at the Emergency Hospital, and he was sent to one of the wards.

Turner Peacock, a watchman, living at No. 221 Indiana avenue, met with a collision, and injured both his hands. He, too, was taken to the Emergency Hospital, but was able to go home after his wounds were dressed.

B. Thompson, a young architect, living at No. 109 Ninth street southeast, sprained his left arm by being thrown from his wheel.

Little Johnnie Palmer, a six-year-old schoolboy, living at No. 1305 F street northwest, raced with a carriage on G street, and became so excited that he fell from his tricycle, and broke his right leg. Dr. Lawrence reduced the fracture at the Emergency Hospital.

Fell From a Freight Train.

James W. Daymond, a laborer on the Baltimore and Ohio road, fell from a moving freight train at Boyd's Station Saturday afternoon, and sustained a fracture of the skull. He was brought to this city and taken to Providence Hospital in the Second precinct ambulance. It was necessary to perform a trephining operation.

The American Sound Money Club.

There will be an interesting meeting of the American Sound Money Club, No. 1, at their headquarters, Elks' Hall, 1006 E street northwest, this evening at 8 o'clock. Hon. J. B. Foraker, Hon. J. W. Douglass, and Prof. John M. Langston have been invited to speak. The club now numbers several hundred.

Detailed for Lighthouse Duty.

Col. George L. Gillespie, Corps of Engineers, is detailed as a member of the lighthouse board, vice Brigadier Gen. John M. Wilson, chief of engineers, who is relieved, at his own request, as a member of the board.

The Colored Cadets.

Washington, April 18, 1897. To the Editor of The Times: The report in this afternoon's issue of The Times of an interview had with me concerning the recent designation of a colored cadet for appointment to a naval cadetship at Annapolis is in one or two instances misleading and incorrect. The statement that I am the only colored man who ever entered the Naval Academy is incorrect. There are others.

Mr. James H. Conyers, of South Carolina, and Mr. A. C. McClellan, of the same State, passed the Academy examinations in 1872 and 1873, respectively, entered the academy as cadet midshipmen, and remained there nearly a year. Again, I did not say that Candidate Bundy "would much better not make the attempt," nor did I say that it would be foolhardy for him to enter the academy.

What I did say was that it would be better if two or three colored boys could be sent there at the same time, so that they could mutually help and support each other; and that in view of my own experience there, and the evident disposition now to throw every possible obstacle in the way of his success, I thought a colored boy's chances for graduating were practically worthless.

The testimony of Cadets Conyers and McClellan was uniform and emphatic on the point of the ungentlemanly, ungenerous, and unfair conduct of other cadets toward them. Although more than twenty years removed from those experiences, I never find myself able even now to write or speak of them with mental composure, and I stop now merely to avoid saying too much. Kindly insert this statement to correct the misstatements above referred to. Very respectfully,

HENRY E. BAKER.

ARRISTED IN THE DIVISION.

Nellie Stewart and Albert Prince Forced to Leave Collateral.

Nellie Stewart, proprietress of a house at No. 1311 E street, in the Division, was arrested at an early hour yesterday morning and charged with keeping a disorderly house. Albert Prince, who was found by the officers upon the premises, was also taken into custody.

Later both the man and the woman were released on collateral. The police were attracted to the house by the loud talking and boisterous conduct of the inmates. A pistol was found, it is said, in the possession of Prince, and he was charged with carrying concealed weapons.

THE LOCAL PYTHIANS.

Energetic Work for Their Grand Memorial Temple.

At a recent meeting of the local lodges of Knights of Pythias it was determined to erect a grand memorial temple to the order in this city. A committee of forty-five, composed of three members from each lodge, and an executive committee of fifteen, one from each lodge, was appointed to take charge of the matter.

This committee, with Mr. J. A. Frank as chairman, met Saturday night at the headquarters of the order, corner Ninth and F streets, to decide on plans of action. The chairman was authorized to issue an appeal for financial aid to all the lodges and friends of the order throughout the country. The appeal will be sent out next week.

Washington being the birthplace of the order, the committees in charge are very anxious that the proposed temple will surpass in grandeur any of its kind in this country. The exact cost of the building will not be determined until the committees can estimate the amount of money contributed by outside lodges. They expect to raise from $500,000 to $1,000,000. This they regard no wild expectation, since the order in the United States numbers 500,000 members, among whom are some of the wealthiest men in America. President McKinley and William J. Bryan are both members. The site of the building has not yet been determined, but if ground can be procured it will be on or near Pennsylvania avenue, somewhere between the Treasury and the Capitol.

American are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oxnard, Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels." For sale by Henry Evans, wholesale and retail druggist, 938 F street and Connecticut avenue and S street northwest.
